A word from your guide - Steven

As a gay Australian, it is with great excitement that I can invite you on a journey to experience the magic of World Pride Sydney with Urban Heartbeat. On this tour, enjoy all the delights that Australia's two biggest cities have to offer, from the gorgeous blue Sydney Harbor to the eclectic laneways of Melbourne! We Aussies know how to have a good time, and I guarantee you will too. World Pride in Sydney is an event for the ages and a chance to celebrate being proud members of the LGBTQIA+ community. Come see how the community does life down under, and who knows, if you are mingling you might find more down under than you had ever hoped for. Oh HELLO! ;)

This is your chance to strut your stuff in the Aussie summer, and see who else is strutting their's! There will be plenty of shirts off and skin on show, so don't miss out.

The itinerary below lists the highlights of each day. Within those days though, you will also have us guiding you through the BEST food choices, and you will see WAY more than what is written. The itinerary is hand picked to perfection by me, Steven, your local proudly gay Australian guide. I will be with you all the way and will ensure you have the best experience ever.

So what are you waiting for? Don't put off this amazing experience. Be in the front seat and you will be rewarded with the best view. I'll see you here, mate!
